

CHINICE SPORTS INVESTMENT LTD.

At Chinice Sports Investment Company we represent several football players, providing them with attentive, rigorous and professional advice and help them to negotiate good professional deals.

Chinice Sports is a career management company for sports professionals as well as grassroots football players, led by NFF-licenced players' intermediary Ferdinand Oji. We currently have our head office in Benin City, Nigeria.

Discovering and promoting promising young players is one of the main concerns of this representation company, which provides them with the right representational platform to have a successful professional career.

Chinice Sports Management Team is made up of a number of competent and dedicated professionals.

Today Chinice Sports can boast of managing fully the careers of a number of young players in Nigeria and all over the world.

Chinice Sports are the agents behind the transfer of a current leading scorer in the Swedish league, Pascal Durugbor, from Nigeria.

We look forward continuously to doing business for young players, guardians and clubs.
